By His Excellency's Command,
ALEXANDER M'LEAY.

Government Notice.

COLONIAL SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
SYDNEY, 7th MARCH, 1832.

CIVIL OFFICERS.

IN obedience to the commands of the Right Honorable the Secretary of State, as signified in a Circular Dispatch, dated the 31st day of August, 1831, His Excellency the GOVERNOR has directed the publication of the following Regulations respecting the Salaries of Civil Officers obtaining leave to quit the Colony, upon their private affairs, viz.:—

1st. Civil or Judicial Officers, or Servants of the Government of New South Wales, who may receive leave to return to Europe, on the plea of ill health, or of urgent private affairs, will be allowed to draw one Moiety of their respective Salaries, and no more, during the actual period of their absence from the Colony. The other Moiety of such Salaries will be retained in the Public Treasury, and carried to account of the Public Revenue, under the Head of "Savings accrued from Salaries of Officers absent on leave."

2. It will rest exclusively with the Governor, or Lieutenant Governor for the time-being, to determine the mode in which the duties of absent Officers shall he performed, until their return to the Colony.

3. It is to be distinctly understood, that in no case will Officers, acting for others absent, be allowed to demand or receive any remuneration from such absent Officers; nor will they be considered entitled to receive the undrawn portions of absent Officers' Salaries. But it will be competent for the Governor or Lieutenant Governor for the time-being, to grant to any Officer, having acted for another when absent, a reasonable allowance or gratuity, which is not in any case to exceed in one year a fourth part of the whole amount of the respective Salaries of absent Officers, provided that the Governor or Lieutenant Governor shall certify to the Secretary of State that such extra allowance or gratuity has been granted in reward for meritorious exertions or useful services.

By His Excellency's Command,
ALEXANDER M'LEAY.

Government Notice.

COLONIAL SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
SYDNEY, MARCH 6, 1832.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Families who are in want of FEMALE SERVANTS may be supplied from the English Prisoners arrived in the Ship Pyramus, from London, provided they apply according to the established Form on or before Tuesday the 13th instant.

Printed Forms for the purpose may be obtained by applying at the Office of the Principal Superintendent of Convicts.

By Command of His Excellency the Governor,
ALEXANDER M'LEAY.

Government Notice.

COLONIAL SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
SYDNEY, 1st MARCH, 1832.

HIS Excellency the GOVERNOR has been pleased to direct the publication of the general objects of the two following Bills, now under the consideration of the Legislative Council.

By His Excellency's Command,
ALEXANDER M'LEAY.

1. "A Bill to abolish certain Oaths and "Affirmations taken and made in the "Customs Department of His Majesty's "Revenue of New South Wales, and to "substitute Declarations in lieu thereof."

In consequence of the numerous oaths which have been required by the laws relating to the Customs, the reverence and respect which should attach to such solemn obligations have been weakened, and their binding force not duly regarded; it is therefore proposed to assimilate the Laws of this Colony to those recently passed in that respect in England, by providing that, in all cases in which an oath or affirmation is required by any law or ordinance relating to the Customs, a declaration shall be made instead thereof, subject to a penalty of One hundred Pounds if such delaration shall be untrue in any particular.

Not to extend to Oaths of Office, or in Judicial proceedings.

The Collector or Controller of Customs to be empowered to require a written declaration, in any case where a confirmation of any statement or allegation is deemed necessary.

2. "A Bill to continue for two years an Act "of the Governor, with the Advice of the "Legislative Council, passed in the eleventh "year of the reign of His late Majesty, "intituled 'An Act for regulating the "'Slaughtering of Cattle, and for prevent-"'ing the improper driving of the same "'through the Streets of Sydney, and for "'other purposes.'"

As the above recited Act will expire on the thirty-first day of May next, it is proposed to renew the same for two years.

Government Notice.

COLONIAL SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
SYDNEY, 28th FEBRRARY, 1832.

HIS Excellency the GOVERNOR has been pleased to direct the publication of the general objects of the following Bill, now under the consideration of the Legislative Council.

By His Excellency's Command,
ALEXANDER M'LEAY.

"A Bill to establish a Savings' Bank in New "South Wales, and to provide for the management thereof, and for the security of "Deposits therein."

It is proposed, for the encouragement of frugality, and in order that persons possessing small sums of money beyond what they require for their immediate wants, may be afforded an opportunity of depositing the same on good security, to establish an Institution to be called a "Savings' Bank," of which the Governor, or Acting Governor for the time-being, shall be the President.

The management of the Institution to be vested in nine Trustees, one of whom to be styled Vice-President, who are to frame rules and regulations for the management of the Bank, which are to be submitted for the approval of the Governor.—Two or more Trustees to receive deposits on days to be hereafter fixed, and the same to be paid over to the Colonial Treasurer.

Monies deposited to be lent out on real securities, in sums not exceeding £500, and at not less than £8 per cent. interest; and a mortgage bond and warrant of attorney to be taken as further security.

A balance sheet of the receipts and payments to be prepared yearly, and published in the newspapers.

Deposits of above ten shillings to receive £7½ per cent. out of the interest received by the Bank, and any surplus to be divided rateably, and placed to depositor's credit.

Interest to be paid half yearly; and if not claimed to be added to the principal, but not to accumulate as principal above one hundred pounds.

Depositors to receive back the principal on notice and certain conditions.

No Trustee, or other person concerned in the management of the Savings' Bank, to deposit or derive any benefit therefrom.

Rules and Regulations to be enrolled in the Supreme Court.

Infants allowed to make deposits and give receipts in their own names.

Trustees, by order of the Governor, to be authorised to receive any sums that may have been heretofore deposited in any Savings' Bank or Friendly Societies already established in the Colony, provided the depositors shall so desire.

National Library of Australia http://nla.gov.au/nla.news-page12475188

Prisoners of the Crown to be allowed to make deposits exceeding one hundred pounds, and the Trustees to frame rules for the payment of interest thereon, but no Prisoner to withdraw deposits without the consent of the Governor.

Government Notice.

COLONIAL SECRETARY'S OFFICE,

Government Notice.

COLONIAL SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
SYDNEY, 12th JANUARY, 1832.

SALE OF LAND.

AT 12 o'clock of Friday the 13th day of April next, the Collector of Internal Revenue will put up to AUCTION, at the Police Office, Sydney, the undermentioned PORTIONS of LAND, on the conditions detailed in the Government Order of 1st August, 1831, No. 22.

The Land will be put up at the price of five shillings per acre; and the highest bidder of that sum or upwards (if free) will be declared the purchaser.

But before the bidding is accepted, the party will be required to pay down a deposit of ten per cent. on the amount of the purchase money, and to sign an engagement to pay the balance within one calendar month, under penalty of forfeiting both the deposit and the Land.

If payment be not made within the prescribed period, the deposit will be forfeited accordingly, and the Land will be again open to the selection of the public.

The Land disposed of under these Regulations will be held in free and common socage; subject to the nominal quit-rent of a peppercorn; and under the usual reservations regarding the construction of roads and bridges—indigenous timber, and other materials for roads and public purposes—and mines of coals, and of precious metals

It will be measured according to the established Regulations; and the purchaser will take upon himself all risks arising from any inaccuracy in the description.

Further particulars respecting the Land may be obtained from the Surveyor General; and, respecting the conditions, from the Collector of Internal Revenue.
